

I have had a favorable relationship with Sonic, a local independent ISP in Santa Rosa , California. Their service and service response is excellent. I do not wish to see any steps taken that would impact such independent operations adversely.